DT&M welcomes Brodsky to firm as partner

Attorney Adam J. Brodsky has joined the law firm of Drohan Tocchio & Morgan, PC in Hingham as a partner. A resident of Scituate, Brodsky has more than 25 years of experience in environmental, regulatory and business law.

Over the past two decades, Brodsky has helped many individuals and businesses with a variety of environmental legal issues. He has assisted in the permitting of new projects, cleanup of hazardous waste sites, due diligence for acquisitions and regulatory compliance. Brodsky has handled all aspects of environmental litigation – from wetlands and waterways appeals to cost-recovery actions.

“We are extremely pleased to announce the addition of Adam to our firm,” said Jeffery Tocchio, a partner with Drohan Tocchio & Morgan. “We have admired his professionalism and skill over the years, and have consulted with him concerning extremely sophisticated issues of environmental and regulatory law. The more we worked together, the more we recognized the complementary aspects of our practices, and the combined value that this would provide to our clients. The addition of Adam takes us to a new level.”

Prior to joining DT&M, Brodsky had his own successful practice for more than 16 years in Norwell. He also worked at Wright, Moehrke & Mackie PC (now Mackie, Shea & O’Brien PC) in Boston, where he practiced environmental and business law, land use and litigation, and Widett, Slater & Goldman PC in Boston, where he litigated complex business disputes.

Brodsky received his Bachelor of Arts cum laude from Union College in 1983 and his Juris Doctor from Boston University School of Law in 1986. He is admitted to practice law in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts and U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. He is a member of the Boston Bar Association.

Brodsky serves on the Board of Trustees for the Central New England Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. He is a former member of the Conservation Commission in Scituate. He is a member of Congregation Sha’aray Shalom in Hingham. He is also an official with USA Cycling. Brodsky and his family reside in Scituate.

Located on Derby Street in Hingham, Drohan Tocchio & Morgan PC specializes in all forms of law, including environmental, business, real estate, corporate law, civil litigation, estate planning and family law.
